Version 02

NOTE: This should all feel very 80's in quality and style.

TITLE CARD (blue screen, hazy white letters): Paid for by the Luxom County Police Department

Fade in on...

INT. SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Officer Jeankins sitting on his desk.

JEANKINS

Hey kids, glad you're watching this video. I'm here to talk to you today about the dangers of drunk driving.

(Jeankins takes a hit off a pipe).

JEANKINS

C'mon... follow me.

INT. HALLWAY

Shot of a closet door.

JEANKINS

I've cleaned more bodies off of the tarmac than I can keep track of. That's why we started our internship program... say hello to Shannon... a kid, just like you.

Shannon, white-faced, the horrors of hell on her face, a little blood on her blouse, steps into frame. She opens the closet. Three dead bodies are stacked inside. Couple of closeup, shaky camera shots and high pitched music.

JEANKINS

They talk to me sometimes.

INT. BREAKROOM

Jeankins pours a cup of coffee.

JEANKINS

If you're ever in a situation where you drank too much, call a taxi. Or you'll be riding in the back of my car.

He pours a bit of whiskey from a flask into his coffee.

INT. CLASSROOM

Jeankins talks to a class.

STUDENT

How, um... gross... can a car accident get?

JEANKINS

I'm glad you asked that question.

Jeankins slowly pulls out a pump sprayer, primes it, and starts spraying the kids with blood. ~~After getting them sloppily covered, he sets the sprayer back down.~~

JEANKINS

~~Any questions?~~

INT. SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Jeankins is lining cocaine on his desk.

JEANKINS

So what did we learn today? That drunk driving is serious business. Right Shannon?

Shakey close up of Shannon with high pitched music. Back to Jeankins rubbing his nose like he just snorted.

JEANKINS

Alright, let's go get some bad guys.

DEAD BODIES

Go get em, Bill / You go, Bill.
